

World Contraception Day

Lesson 2 Quiz A

	Statement	True	False
1.	If a woman has sex during her period the chances of her getting pregnant are non-existent
2.	You can't get pregnant the first time you have sex
3.	You can't get pregnant if the male withdraws before he ejaculates
4.	The chance of a woman getting pregnant is one in two million if she only has sex once or twice
5.	If the condom tears during sex, I am still protected because condoms contain a substance that kills sperm
6.	Wearing two condoms provides double the protection against unplanned pregnancy and sexually transmitted infections (STIs)
7.	It is unlikely you will get an STI under the age of 25
8.	You don't have to sleep with lots of people to get an STI
9.	The pill interferes with the female reproductive system, so she may not be able to have children later

10. List three of the most effective forms of contraception

11. Where can you get contraception and how old do you have to be?

12. How do you know if you have a sexually transmitted infection (STI)?